

Information Sheet

Welcome to the Light of the World Adventure! Light of the World teaches kids the importance of stewardship while helping and getting to know other kids around the world.

The best place to get information for your Adventure is the Light of the World website (bibleleague.org/lotw) where you'll find an introductory video, instructions on how to get involved, and printable lessons and activity sheets. For more information, contact Judy VanderWall by phone: 708-367-8546, or by email: jvanderwall@bibleleague.org.

What you'll get:

- Lessons, activity sheets, and stories of children around the world who receive Bibles and ministry provided by your kids' gifts.
- A Bible Bank that will be used to collect money for Bibles and a Light of the World bracelet for participating.
- A bi-monthly email update with new stories, activities, and a Parent Connection section for kids and parents to learn more together.

How to get involved:

- Head to the website and watch the introductory video. Be sure to share it with others at your church or school (pastor, children's leaders, parents).
- Fill out the request form on the webpage to order as many Bible Banks as needed.
- Distribute one Bible Bank and one Light of the World bracelet per child.
- Print and distribute the lessons and activity sheets on the website.
- Collect the money each week or at the end of process.
- Send your total donation to Bible League International by mail or through the website.

How to get the most from your Adventure:

- Share the introductory video on the website with kids, family, friends, and your church/school.
- Order collectible bracelets for those who give to the offering.
- Have a celebration after the Adventure is over.
- Invite parents and church to match the money raised.
- Continue to visit the website for new updates and information on how children are being reached all over the world.

Our prayer for this Adventure:

- Children will learn the importance of stewardship and see the fruit of their giving.
- They will share the gift of God's Word with others and see how it changes lives.
- They will learn about other cultures and countries.
- They will hear unique stories and experiences about children their age who experience the power of God's Word.
