About the Solution

Recommended to the client by Ritter Maher Architects, ASI worked with Jani-King to brand their newly-constructed Gulf Coast Headquarters. The client’s main goal was to incorporate the company’s mission statement and values in a way that fills their three-dimensional space and becomes a focal point to all visitors.

Working in coordination with Jani-King, ASI designed a bold signage package. A grand staircase and surrounding vacant wall space served as ASI’s canvas to incorporate Jani-King’s values and mission statement in the form of panels and acrylic letters.

ASI incorporated a super graphic in the breakroom to add a little fun to the gathering space. In addition, ASI provided ADA signage, wayfinding solutions and exterior letters for the monument sign.
